Sea rises tomorrow at 5:40 and sets 6:28.
High water at 11:00 a. m. and 11:30 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight and Sunday with rising temperature; variable winds, becoming southerly and fresh.

CHURCH SERVICES.

At the M. E. Church South, tomorrow morning, Rev. E. V. Register will preach, and at night Mr. R. L. Downing will conduct an evangelistic service.
At the Free Methodist Church, Rev. E. N. Bandy will preach.
In the other churches services will be conducted by the resident clergymen.

THE KIDNAPPED GIRL.

A dispatch from Philadelphia says: "The kidnapping story told in Alexandria by Margaret Curran, daughter of Mrs. Harry Curran, of this city, is accepted by her family and friends as true. The girl left her home at noon Monday after spending the morning with Miss Sarah Travis, of Oronoke, and did not arrive down town for her mother. Margaret Curran, a young girl, was seen by a man who told her that he had seen her inside the station. When asked where she was, she said she had gone aboard a train and took the girl with her to a coach bound for Washington. The train began to move at once. The man and woman frightened her so she did not tell any one of her plight. 'We have been very much worried over her since she disappeared last Monday,' said the girl's brother, James Curran, Thursday. The police were notified and have been looking everywhere for her. She was a quiet girl, unusually unsophisticated. Before this she had never been away from home over night. I thought for the first day or two she was at her aunt's in Oronoke. When we found we were wrong her disappearance baffled us." Mrs. Curran, a widow of moderate circumstances, is troubled over the means of getting her daughter home. She has not the funds to send anybody after her or to go herself, and the police told her Thursday that they could not send a detective after her. Yesterday the mother found no solution for her difficulty.

Today Mrs. Addison, matron of the Alexandria Hospital, accompanied by a policeman, conducted Miss Curran to Washington, where she placed her in the House of Mercy, in charge of the Episcopal Sisters.

WHEREABOUTS UNKNOWN.
As was stated in the Gazette, nothing has been heard since Thursday of the whereabouts of Adeline Robinson and Edith Talbot, the young women who had been attracting attention in this city during the past week or two. Some, however, believe they are in Washington. The women had been occupying a room in the Braddock House previous to their disappearance, and this morning the proprietor found an open letter which had been left by the woman who had given her name as Robinson. It was from Norfolk and was addressed to Miss A. L. Fletcher. The writer signed himself T. B. He bitterly complained of the conduct of the recipient of the letter in leaving him with a baby to care for, and told his correspondent he would follow her all over the world. In other portions of the letter he begged the woman to return to him. The Robinson woman, it is alleged by the police, told them when she was taken in custody that she had been married eleven months.

BASKETBALL.
The Alexandria Athletic Association will play the last game of basketball tonight with their strong Y. M. C. A. team of Fort Myer at their hall on King street. Through an error of the registration committee of the Amateur Athletic Union, the Alexandria Athletic Association was declared professional, but it was reinstated by the chairman of the committee last night. The line up of the Alexandrians will be Doble and Wilkerson, forwards; Robey, center; Dobson and Hoy, back. The visitors will be entertained by a dance after the game. Ladies are cordially invited.

RUNAWAY BOYS.
A boy named Mense, who had run away from his home in Washington, was arrested last night by Lieutenant Smith. The father of the youth, came here this morning and carried him home. A son of Mr. William Birchmore, living on south Alfred street, left his home a few days ago and went to Wilmington, Del. Chief Goods telegraphed to the police of that city to take charge of the youth, and yesterday his father went to Wilmington and brought him home.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.
The city democratic committee will meet at the Opera House Cafe at 8 o'clock tonight, at which time the names of candidates for Mayor and the City Council will be presented. From previous indications it seems there will be no primary election, as the officers to be filled are going begging, and no new candidates are expected to submit their names tonight. In such an event, the present incumbents will be declared the nominees by the committee.

THROWN FROM A HORSE.
A man, whose name could not be learned, was thrown from a horse he was riding by colliding with an electric trolley on King street, between Pitt and St. Asaph, this morning. He escaped serious injury, as did the animal he was riding. The accident drew a large crowd and the victim led his horse away as soon as possible.

THE MARKET.
There was an average supply of country produce in market this morning. Green stuff of all varieties was selling at moderate prices, but butter and poultry were still high. Eggs were down to 15 cents a dozen although some country people were asking 15 and 17.

Money can be saved by buying your shoes at Marshall's, 422 King street.

SEMON'S ON MOSES.
Rev. J. B. Sevier, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, will deliver his last discourse on the life of Moses tomorrow night. He has received many requests to continue this course of studies of the "Great Men of the Old Testament" for a few weeks longer.

THE SCHOOLS.

It is expected that the building on Prince Street, near Pitt, owned by Mrs. Ewing, will be fitted up for school rooms by Tuesday morning at which time it is believed the four schools removed from the third story of Peabody building will be reopened. The desks, etc., are being removed to the Ewing building today from the upper floor of Peabody building. Army Hall having been rented for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next, the boys' school removed from the upper floor of the old Academy building will not be reopened until Thursday morning. By this time Army Hall will be put in condition to receive the school.

It is understood that Mr. C. R. Yates, a school trustee from the First ward, who opposed the occupancy of the Ewing building, has telegraphed school Examiner Maples, of this district, to come here on Monday and prevent the transfer. Mr. Yates, it is understood, will go the limit to prevent the occupancy of the Ewing building. At the meeting of the School Board last Thursday night he and Mr. T. L. Carter advocated the closing of Peabody building entirely.

COLORED SHRINERS.

The Colored Shrine Temple, of this city, held their annual meeting last night and re-elected William A. Carter, president and a full list of subordinate officers. The next general annual session of the Imperial Council of the United States will be held at Providence, R. I., September 8, 1908. The Imperial Potentate, Jacob F. Wright, of Richmond, Va., issued his decree yesterday for the Providence session. Magnus L. Robinson, a 3rd degree colored Mason and past grand imperial recorder and one of the incorporators of the Imperial Council, has been extended a special invitation to be one of the special guests at the Providence meeting. On September 10th after the adjournment of the Shrine the colored masons will assemble at 8 o'clock to celebrate the 100th anniversary of Prince Hall, who was the first negro Mason of this country at which Booker T. Washington will be the Masonic Centennial orator.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]
The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Annie Freeman, colored, charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses, was fined $10.

Calvin Johnson, Eugene Parker and Clarence Anderson, all colored, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.

A second-hand dealer, charged with purchasing a pistol from a colored man and failing to report the transaction to the station house, was fined $10. The accused was told that he must report everything purchased by him from a toothpick up, and that the fine would be doubled if in future he failed to comply with the law.

THE FISHERY.
The fishing season has commenced, although the arrivals at this port are still slow. About 1,500 herring reached Falmouth yesterday. They brought from $7 to $8 per thousand. Shad were firmer today. They sold yesterday at from 55 to 60 cents wholesale. The Baltimore steamer which arrived early this morning brought up several hundred barrels of herring which had been "struck" on the shores.

MEN'S MEETING.
Robert L. Downing, formerly a well-known actor, will tell the story of his conversion in the Young People's Building of the M. E. Church South tomorrow afternoon at 8:30 o'clock. The Masonic quartette will render vocal music on the occasion. Mr. Downing will speak in the M. E. Church South at 7:30 p. m.

BOSTON STUDENTS TO VIRGINIA.
Members of the senior class of the Waltham, Mass., High School started yesterday on a pilgrimage to Washington and Virginia. They will attend service tomorrow morning at Christ Church, Alexandria. President Roosevelt will receive them Wednesday noon.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT HIMSELF.
A young colored girl who was visiting at Hume Springs accidentally shot herself while handling a pistol today. Dr. Wilkie, of this city, was summoned and he extracted the bullet which had entered the girl's thigh.

CAVILES IN THE AIR.
Senator Robert L. Taylor ("Governor Bob") of Tennessee, will deliver his great lecture, "Castles in the Air," at the Young People's Building of the M. E. Church South on Friday evening, April 10, at 8 o'clock.

Miss Fannie Abbott, of Fairfax county, has gone to New York to spend Easter.

Mr. Melvin Pitts, who has been in Panama for the past year, is visiting his home in this city.

Mount Vernon Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, will give a banquet at Army Hall Tuesday night next. Several prominent Masons have been invited to respond to toasts. Each companion will be accompanied to the banquet by a lady.

Mr. W. P. Walsh, of Washington, and Miss Emma V. Griffin, daughter of Mr. James Griffin, of this city, were married yesterday evening by Rev. Dr. Fisher at the parsonage of the Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Smith and son arrived last night from Canada on a visit to Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, 408 Duke street.

Cured of Rheumatism.
Mr. Wm. Henry of Chantanooga, Tenn., had rheumatism in his left arm. The strength seemed to have gone out of the muscles so that it was useless for work," he says. "I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and wrapped the arm in flannel at night, and to my relief I found that the pain gradually left me and the strength returned. In three weeks the rheumatism had disappeared and has not since returned." If troubled with rheumatism try a few applications of Pain Balm. You are certain to be pleased with the relief which it affords. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

Tans are the real thing for spring wear. We handle the swellest line in town. Our motto, high grade, low prices. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mat Williams, who has recently been an inmate of a sanitarium, has returned to his home in this city.

A special meeting of the Columbia Fire Company will be held Monday night when business of importance will be transacted.

In the Circuit Court for the city in vacation today Mr. W. E. Fendall qualified as administrator of the estate of the late John F. Tackett.

The weather was cold and foggy last night. Ice was visible this morning, and it is feared the fruit will be damaged. Cold and windy conditions have continued today.

Mr. Louis Brill sent to this office today from the Opera House Cafe a dish of (temporarily prepared) of crabs on toast which were greatly enjoyed. The crabs were the first to arrive in the city this season.

The Fredericksburg Star says Mr. W. S. Embery, Jr., of that city, at Chesapeake creek, near Quantico, Thursday, caught a black bass which weighed 7 1/2 pounds. This is the record catch for local manipulators of the rod.

A horse attached to a buggy belonging to Mr. G. T. Caton ran away in the southwest corner of the city about nine o'clock this morning. The animal was not stopped until it reached Royal street, between King and Cameron. The shafts of the buggy were broken.

"Ned," the bay horse owned and driven by Mr. E. E. Downham the past eighteen years, died at a hospital in Washington yesterday. Poor Old Ned while he was not a Sunol or Red Wilkie, (he was a Prince Oriole) there were but few that could give him the dust down the road.

STATIONERY GOODS
NEW-YORK TRIBUNE
New York, April 3, 1908.
R. E. Knight, Alexandria, Va.:
Dear Mr. Knight:—On Sunday, April 5th, THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE will issue a special supplement which will be in the nature of an advance story on the big Catholic celebration which takes place in New York later in the month.
This supplement will contain messages from Cardinal Gibbons, Cardinal Logue of Ireland and the leaders of the various orders of nuns, including Bishop Doane's special articles by Archbishop O'Connell, of Boston, and Dr. John T. of Smith, an interview with Archbishop Farley, new stories of old Catholic families, etc., and fully half a hundred pictures.
Many of your patrons will no doubt be interested in this great feature, and would like a copy of THE TRIBUNE as a souvenir. Send for circulars advertising this number as per enclosed inclose sample and forward your order for extra papers.
Remember the date, Sunday, April 5th.
Yours truly,
W. B. BRYANT,
Circulation Manager.
